

Fair Housing Enforcement

Available 24/7

No

Other Eligibility Criteria

Adults. No residency requirement

Intake Process

Phone, Walk-in

Self Refer

Yes

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)

<https://www.hud.gov/complaints/housediscrim.cfm>

Main

(202) 708-1112

Toll-Free

(800) 669-9777

TTY/TTD

(800) 927-9275

451 7th St., SW, Room 5206

20410 DC

United States

Fee Structure

No Fee

Languages Spoken

English

,

Spanish

,

Sign Language

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development offers mortgage, grant, and housing assistance programs to provide strong, sustainable communities and affordable homes for all Americans.

Call for information about housing programs.

Caller may file a complaint of housing discrimination if the discrimination is based on race, color, religion, sex, disability, familial status or national origin. HUD forwards the complaint to the appropriate regional office for investigation and resolution. Bus Line: Metrobus. Subway Stop: L'Enfant Plaza. Wheelchair accessible.

Disability Rights and Resources can provide information on housing rights of people with disabilities and responsibilities of housing providers.

Senior Housing can provide information on senior housing options. {Languages: English; American Sign Language, offers translators with advance notice}

Service Area(s)

Nationwide