Catholic Charities Diocese of Arlington offers counseling for individuals (children, adolescents, or adults), couples, and families, in English and Spanish, as well as group programs. Support for special-needs children and their parents. Support to crisis-response-teams for schools, when requested.

Comprised of Licensed Clinical Social Workers and a consulting psychiatrist, as well as professional counselors, the Family Services Department brings together expertise in child behavioral problems, marital communication, and enrichment, as well as a host of clinical topics such as mood disorders (depressions, anxiety) and various problems related to addiction.

Includes Separation and Divorce Support Groups, Pre-Adolescent and Adolescent Girls Groups, Mature Women Support Groups, and Parenting Classes in Spanish!
