The Fairfax-Falls Church Community Services Board's Annandale office programs provides substance abuse treatment in a supportive, structured environment. Caring, knowledgeable staff teaches life skills to help people reach personal goals, through individual counseling sessions and weekly groups, guided by each person's individualized treatment plan. Outpatient groups are offered in English and Spanish. Young adult group offered for ages 18 to 25.

Other services available:

- Co-occurring disorder services;
- Psychiatric services;
- Vocational training;
- Family and friends groups;
- Continuing care group;
- Peer support program.

All programs offer culturally and linguistically appropriate services. Services are provided on a sliding fee scale, determined at the time of intake.
