The Special Programs Division of York County coordinates programs and events as a resource for information and referral regarding concerns and interests related to aging, health, and disabilities. Special Programs staff are responsible for:

- Working on programs to address specific needs within the areas of aging, health, and disabilities services on an as-needed basis.
- Maintaining the Senior Connection, a referral and information directory for seniors and citizens with disabilities.
- Organizing of programs offered at the Senior Center of York, and maintaining the Senior Center's monthly newsletter, The Observer.
- Policy review of Federal and State programs and regulations on an as-needed basis.

The administration office is at 224 Ballard Street, Yorktown, Virginia.
