Services consist of home organization and relocation services.

Organizing and reducing clutter at home or the office. Space Matters specializes in transitioning to smaller homes, making items more accessible within the home, filing important numbers and information, and taking donations to local charities.

Organizers do the legwork to help locate items needed to get organized; make recurring visits to take care of correspondence, bill pay, and seasonal closet changeovers; Help unclutter, organize, downsize, relocate, and stage for a home sale.

Additional services include paper management, computer file organization and/or reducing electronic clutter, closet organizing, and information management. An upfront estimate evaluates the job size, after which the whole job or pieces can be completed at one time. By reducing clutter and implementing systems of organization living spaces will be more enjoyable, more functional, less stressful, and easier to maintain. Space Matters will find organizing accessories that fit within your budget.
