Fleet and Family Support Center helps individuals who have become victims of sexual assault receive services and information regarding their rights. Domestic Abuse Victim Advocates provide a broad range of services to military-affiliated victims of domestic abuse. Advocacy services are provided to increase victim safety and autonomy. Services include but are not limited to:

- Crisis response
- Individualized safety assessment and safety planning
- Accompaniment to court and other legal appointments
- Assisting with requesting military or civilian protective orders
- Transportation on a case-by-case basis
- Provide education on the dynamics of domestic violence
- Linking victims to valuable resources in both the civilian and military communities

For Domestic Abuse Victim Advocates at locations:
