Needham Mitnick and Pollack is a law firm offering estate planning and elder law services. Services can include long-term care planning, disability planning, wills and trusts, probate, trust administration, powers of attorney, advance medical directives and guardianship petitions.

Staff works with persons of all ages, including those with mental and physical disabilities, and their families. Our attorneys and staff, take the tine to listen and understand our client's problems and to find solutions for them. Of utmost importance to us is helping our clients maintain their dignity as they plan for the future.

Support services provided through other professionals who provide essential services to our clients. We can identify financial planners, social workers, elder care professionals, or others, and work with them to help you create and implement the best plan to meet your needs.
