At Danville-Pittsylvania Community Services, the Behavioral Health Services Division provides a continuum of services from short term therapy, child and adolescent therapy, 24-hour emergency crisis intervention services, psychiatric evaluation and medication treatment, case management, psychosocial rehabilitation, and housing and employment assistance for individuals diagnosed with a behavioral health, substance use disorder, developmental or a co-occurrence of disorders. This integrated delivery system serves to maximize continuity of care to its individuals. Services provided are based on the belief that treatment is individual driven and implemented in the least restrictive manner available.
