My Sister's Place provides crisis intervention and referral services by phone for anyone who needs to discuss an abusive relationship. The hotline also serves as an intake for the emergency shelter.

844-443-5732 (844-4helpdc) is the 24-Hour Crisis Hotline

The SOS (Support Our Survivors) Center provides women and children who have lived in violent homes the needed supportive counseling to help them recover from the trauma of the abuse they have endured. The Center provides access to this counseling for women and children in all stages recovering from abuse, including those who remain in potentially violent homes, those who have escaped to a shelter, and those who have separated permanently but want access to ongoing support.

Agency works to find language assistance as needed.
