Loudoun Volunteer Caregivers offers friendly visiting and/or regular telephone contact by volunteers to older adults and those with disabilities who reside in Loudoun County.

Caregivers provide support services such as friendly visiting, weekly phone calls, grocery shopping, meal preparation, food bank delivery, respite sitting for individuals with dementia or Alzheimer's, light housework, help with paperwork, and more.

The organization also offers Assisted Transportation for frail older adults and adults with disabilities who, because of physical limitations, are not able to use public transportation services.
