The Holy Cross Hospice & Bereavement Center is dedicated to supporting individuals who have experienced the recent death of a loved one. The bereavement service focuses on people dealing with death by providing emotional and practical advice to help them better cope during this challenging time in their lives.

Online support is available. Get information about a Spanish Language Support Group and a drop-in grief group. For more information, contact the Bereavement Center at 301-754-7742 or bereavementcenter@holycrosshealth.org. Registration is required.
