Services provided are getting people unpacked, organized and settled on move day. Moving and unpacking services within a 40-mile radius of Washington DC. Services are available to senior citizens moving from one location to another, as well as to companies relocating their employees, or individuals and families.

Consultation includes advice, tips, referrals and a plan for the move.

For a fee, there are optional pre-move services which include measuring furniture and completing floor plans to show furniture placement, sort, organizing and labeling belongings for packing and moving. The optional moving day services are meeting and supervising at the customer's old and/or new home to coordinate the move from start to finish and direct the placement of furniture and boxes according to the floor plan. The unpacking and settling services (4-hour minimum) consists of unpacking boxes and putting contents in desired places (kitchen, closets, bath, bedroom, living room), boxes are flattened, and debris removed from living areas.
