Chestnut Grove provides a safe and secure environment for residents with Alzheimer's disease and other forms of memory impairment. The area is called Morning Glory and is designed and decorated with calming colors and soothing accessories to promote quality of life for residents with special needs. Multiple common areas are available to encourage socialization and various activities such as chair exercises, watching old-time movies, crafts, intergenerational visitors, and games. Non-ambulatory residents are welcome.

Amenities and services such as a beauty shop, manicurist, podiatry, and outings on the community bus are available to residents of Morning Glory. Residents can help with daily tasks such as folding laundry to give them a purpose.
