Willows At Meadow Branch has designed an area called Willow Glen which is specifically suited to meet the needs of residents with Alzheimer's and Dementia. Willow Glen is comprised of twenty private rooms and an easily accessible dining room, living room, and activities room.

Secure surroundings and state-of-the-art safety features provide security for adults who need Alzheimer's and dementia care. Residents can take afternoon strolls in the enclosed wandering garden or relax in the gazebo on a sunny afternoon. A daily calendar of structured activities such as aromatherapy, sing-a-longs, storytelling, and scavenger hunts gives residents a sense of purpose and well-being.

For easy identification, we have color-coded the doors to the resident's private apartments in the Alzheimer's and dementia wing. As a reminder of home, we have included a Plexiglas-enclosed "memory box" on the wall by the entrance of each apartment, which can be filled with memorabilia reminiscent of family and friends.
