The full services of Tall Oaks Assisted Living and Memory Care (Tall Oaks) are available for short-term respite stays of a few weeks to a few months if space is available. Whether a loving adult child, friend, or family member is traveling and a loved one needs care, or if someone needs assistance coming from a hospital stay or a rehabilitation center, Tall Oaks has furnished apartments for short-term stays. Respite residents enjoy all of the services and amenities, including nourishing meals, engaging activities, medication administration, and assistance with activities of daily living, including, but not limited to, bathing, personal care, and on-site physical therapy. There is no residency requirement.

Tall Oaks provides transportation for shopping, trips, and medical appointments. The Ride-On Bus connects Tall Oaks to the Wiehle Avenue Metro Station. Wiehle Avenue Metro Station is one mile from Tall Oaks, Metro, and Ride-On Bus Service Managed by Coordinated Services Management, Inc. (CSM).
