Senior Link is a program of the ACTS Helpline that provides daily or weekly reassurance calls to seniors and homebound adults, scheduled at the recipient's convenience. Calls are made by trained listeners who can provide referrals to outside agencies. Individuals, family members or friends can "link" up to the program by calling ACTS helpline at 703-368-4141.

This is a free program that offers socialization, companionship and encouragement. Simply call 703-368-4141, ask to sign up for Senior Link and choose the frequency and scheduling of their reassurance calls.
