The National Adult Protective Services Association (NAPSA) is a national non-profit membership organization with a goal of providing a forum for sharing information, solving problems and improving the quality of services for victims of elder and vulnerable adult mistreatment.

The organization conducts national research on Adult Protective Services (APS) issues; works to increase national awareness of elder and vulnerable adult mistreatment through education, advocacy and congressional testimony; partners with many diverse organizations and operates the resource center to provide professionals with current and relevant information.

Annual conference is held in the fall of each year. Call for more information.
