A Second Me offers an errand service for caregivers, families of children with special needs, professionals and their families and older adults. A Second Me takes care of tasks ranging from shopping, scheduling of and transportation to appointments and activities, helping unpack and get set up in a new home and researching options for other eldercare or childcare services. Assistance is available to complete benefit applications and forms or provide case management and advocacy. Staff help with school intervention services, setting ups disability and assistive technology services, respite and helping with service animals.

Suggested errand services include:

- library pickup and returns,
- dry cleaning,
- meal pickup,
- mail management,
- post office pickup and drop-off,
- prescription ordering and pick-up,

- financial services including insurance claims,
- shopping,
- entertainment,
- travel,
- and more

Owner Karen Prante started A Second Me after experiencing first-hand the challenges associated with being a caregiver to an older parent and to a disabled child while maintaining her own busy schedule. The service is bonded and insured.
