The Garden at The Bay Lake Retirement and Assisted Living Community offers an innovative apartment retirement residence. The staff emphasizes social, recreational, and educational programs. The residents are free to move about and go outdoors into a courtyard with a sense of safety and security.

Seniors who are no longer able to live by themselves will benefit from the helpful staff. They assist in such tasks as bathing, dressing, administering medications, and other daily needs. Amenities include:

- A resident-centered philosophy;
- Two floors of twelve private, studio apartments surrounding a well-appointed living room and dining area;
- Specially designed safety features and secure outdoor setting include a gazebo, gardens, and walking path;
- 24-hour care provided by professional, certified staff;
- On-site hair salon;
- Fine dining experience with choice of entrees;
- Pets are welcomed and encouraged.

The capacity of assisted living and memory care is 90.
