The Gardens at Warwick Forest provides skilled nursing care. The subacute unit specializes in wound management, intravenous therapy, rehabilitation, palliative care, and complex medical care. In addition, a specialized memory-impaired unit, The Piedmont, is for individuals with minimal to moderate dementia and provides a structured program in a calm, comfortable, and safe environment. Also, offers are respite care and hospice care.

Provides 24-hour nursing care. Accommodations throughout the Center include furnished private and semi-private rooms, courtyards, lounges, dining areas, and a beauty shop. Monthly support groups are provided to enhance family education and involvement.
