Kim Hunt Foster helps families transition through various life stages. Prior to her career in real estate, Kim was a Registered Nurse Case Manager, to collaborate, coordinate, and educate families in all areas of the hospital. As your real estate agent, she provides honest feedback and answers by problem-solving skills, attention to detail, organizational skills, and resourcefulness. She will negotiate and make connections with others to enable solutions and making things happen.

With experience in business and healthcare, Kim can bring value to her clients by providing unique solutions to help each of her clients in their transition. Kim is a Senior Real Estate Specialist Realtor with compassion, understanding, professional experience, and natural abilities to make ideal choices to help you and your family member. Whether you are looking to age in place, downsize, buy, or sell, Kim will help you and your family to achieve your goals. As well, she knows the resources available to seniors in Northern Virginia.

Kim Hunt Foster is certified by the Virginia Real Estate Board and the Virginia Board of Nursing.
