Shepherd's Center of Annandale-Springfield (SCAS) provides transportation for adults aged 50 and older to not only medical and dental appointments; but also to grocery stores, banks, food banks, and a host of other locations in Northern Virginia. Volunteer drivers will take older adults to these destinations. Clients must call the office at least five business days before to provide the date, time, and address of the destination. No wheelchair transportation.

To become a volunteer driver, call the SCAS office at 703-941-1419 for more information.
