

After hospitalization for surgery, illness, or injury, you may need rehabilitation services in an inpatient or home setting. Treatment can help you regain or improve abilities (physical, mental, cognitive) needed for daily living. Rehabilitation can help improve your overall functioning and quality of life.

---

View PDF